

CUMMINGS CREEK

The weather is now just what we like to see after we have had so much rain. The roads are in very bad condition.

Mrs George Alderman has returned home after spending some time with her daughter Mrs Edith Dean, near Lobelia, who has been very sick.

Sandy Turner, who worked at Williams camp on Beaver Creek, had a sudden attack of appendicitis last Friday and was rushed to the Marlinton Hospital where an operation was performed Saturday and he is getting along nicely.

Miss Margaret Lee has returned to Marlinton after spending a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lee.

Mrs. Alfred McComb has returned home after a week's treatment in the Marlinton Hospital.

Miss Rejena Underwood spent the week end at home.

Mrs. Bob Landers and her two grandchildren Morris and Arlis, have returned home after spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs Joe Buzard, near Huntersville.

Married, Origin W. B. Underwood

You would of space Than you v started Infinite sp of God All full of diworl God's love space, He loves and r He is our And unto call, (Romans did r Then sha not r Read Ro
by P Believe of a Let ever God is mus I thank for I thanl has When t can He still Hi
Then w not but

-Ex-

You won of s Than y
st Infin
o
All f
God He H A

CUMMINGS CREEK

The weather is now just what we like to see after we have had so much rain. The roads are in very bad condition.

Mrs George Alderman has returned home after spending some time with her daughter Mrs. Edith Dean, near Lobelia, who has been very sick.

Sandy Turner, who worked at Williams camp on Beaver Creek, had a sudden attack of appendicitis last Friday and was rushed to the Mar Union Hospital where an operation

the Marlinton Hospital.

Miss Rejena Underwood spent the week end at home.

Mrs. Bob Landers and her two grandchildren Morris and Arlis, have returned home after spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs Joe Buzard, near Huntersville.

Married, Origin W. R. Underwood and Miss Eula Mary Alderman, both of Beaver Creek, at the Methodist Parsonage, on Monday, January 10, 1927, by Rev. S. R. Neel.

Honor roll for Oak Grove school,

Barlow, Auc

CUMMINGS CREEK

The long dry spell was broken with a fine rain which will be a great help to fall pasture.

A force of men have almost completed graveling the Cummings Creek road.

Everett Alderman has moved to Raywood.

R. W. Buzzard has been laid up for some time with rheumatism.

An outbreak of whooping cough is reported in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee and daughter, Miss Ruth, have returned from Du Bois, Pennsylvania, where they spent a week visiting their daughter Miss Margaret and other relatives.

Wilber Kelly is preparing to move to Huntersville.

The steel is being taken up on the Wilson railroad in this part. They have it complete as far as John Lee's place.

7 stacks shock e shucked 20 bu p fruit, 5 20 gal 20 gal and cro barrels, oil car refriger 3 iron 1 heat stand merous

Barlow

LOS white white Anyor

Danx

FOR 4 oth Creek

Deer

M

MENTION

s in Montgomery on

D. Huff and daughter in Marlinton Sunday

McAid is recovering from pneumonia.

Hinton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ned

Edgar is at her aunt's in Huttonsville for a trip to Columbus, Ky. on a business and family, Mrs.

Miss Ruth Hinkle

Missie is at home in Charleston, Florida.

Missie is here from her sister, Mrs.
as been very ill.

Missie returned on Monday where she is the guest of her mother.

District Home is in Pocahontas assisting Miss

Missie returned last

CUMMINGS CREEK

Farming is the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Underwood and family visited friends on Stony Creek, Sunday.

Mrs. R. J. Landis continues very sick.

Prayer meeting and Sunday school are progressing nicely.

Rev. H. D. Sloan preached a very interesting sermon at Cummings Creek Chapel Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth Schoolcraft is home for a few days from Fayetteville where he has been employed by a mining Co.

P. W. Underwood attended the community council at Huntersville Wednesday night; he reports a good meeting.

Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Ruby M. Eiland, teacher.
Miss Eiland is liked by all the good citizens as a teacher.

Misses Nora, Mabel and Olive Underwood attended the eighth grade examination at Huntersville last Thursday.

The Four-H Club members are very much interested in their work.
Some of the girls are somewhat discouraged owing to the fact that some of their Four-H work was misplaced or stolen from the exhibit hall at the Pocahontas County Fair last summer.
The writer is of the opinion that the party that took these goods from the exhibit hall would not have done so had they known that part of the goods

HAROLD

finance a fields, as recognize native abil-ness, but ed a means for apply the ne experience work—a m-native abilmore rapid abling all cl-maximum o are entitled.

These fact by practical, every line.
ness organizaphasizing the as never befoto be looked many of the ganzation as fecting indust-

Business C

Institutes for qualified work-

LOCAL MENTION

... was in Montgomery on
... S. D. Huff and daugh
... were in Marlinton Sunday
... by Kincaid is recovering
... illness of pneumonia.
... ank of Hinton, was the
... of Mr. and Mrs. Ned

... P. Edgar is at her an ... near Huttonsville for a ... week.

... r went to Columbus,
... turday on a business
... d plant.

... ghan and family, Mrs.
... and Miss Ruth Hinkle
... Elkins.

... McClintic is at home
... spent in Charleston,
... and Florida.

... Young is here from
... with her sister, Mrs
... ho has been very ill.

... thuebat returned on ... Baltimore where she
... illness of her moth-

... ge, District Home
... gent, is in Pocahon-
... tek, assisting Miss
... er work

... nen returned last
... Huntington, where
... a Goldie is slowly
... very serious illness

... alsoon Glenna Gibson
... & Shearer went to
... week to attend the
... New River State

CUMMINGS CREEK

Farming is the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Underwood and family visited friends on Stony Cseek, Sunday.

Mrs. R. J. Landis continues very sick.

Prayer meeting and Sunday school are progressing nicely.

Rev. H. D. Sloan preached a very interesting sermon at Cummings Creek Chapel Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth Schoolcraft is home for a few days from Fayetteville where he has been employed by a mining Co.

P. W. Underwood attended the community council at Huntersville Wednesday night; he reports a good meeting.

Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Ruby M. Elland, teacher. Miss Elland is liked by all the good citizens as a teacher.

Misses Nora, Mabel and Olive Underwood attended the eighth grade examination at Huntersville last Thursday.

The Four-H Club members are very much interested in their work. Some of the girls are somewhat discouraged owing to the fact that some of their Four-H work was misplaced or stolen from the exhibit hall at the Pocahontas County Fair last summer. The writer is of the opinion that the party that took these goods from the exhibit hall would not have done so had they known that part of the goods belonged to some orphan children who labored hard to get this work done.

The Tide is Turning

A Temperance drama entitled 'The Turn of the Tide' will be given at Greenbank high school auditorium finance are virtua fields, as it is alr recognized profes native ability and exp ness, but education at a means for helping t apply the net good of experience of many t work—a means for native ability to cor more rapidly and su abling all classes of a maximum of success are entitled.

HAROLD STONIER

These facts are pl by practical, work-a- every line. Every j ness organization i phasizing the importa as never before. Ed to be looked upon a many of the problem ganization as well as fecting industry as a

Business Organiz

Institutes for develp qualified workers are or organized in many mercial and industrial institutes are trying 1 educational work with toward more and more education for the rank ness employees of all g We have been havin